-The firemen are red hot on account of the order issued by the Commissioners. The department is in first-rate working order and thorough-ly efficient, and they think it unjust to put a suspicion on every member of the force because a few may be lax in the'r duties. They agree with the policeman who was interviewed yes-

-President Hadden said yesterda/ that he had no fault to find with the policeman interviewed by the APPEAL. He was his friend, he said, even if be was a triffe sarcastic, and he had made up his mind to pursue just the course marked out. His principal reason, he said, for attending to details himself, was to get rid of them once and for all, and then he did not care to make his callers mad by refusing to talk with them even if it did worry and barass him.

-The building committee for the rection of additional buildings of the Christian Brothers College, consisting of Capt. James Lee, jr., Michael Gavin, Dr. D. T. Porter, Brother Romuald, Vice Provincial from Louis, and Brother Maurelian, President of the College, concluded on yesterday evening a c reful exan ination of the twenty-three bids offered, and decided in favor of Messrs.
